THE

QUARTERLY JOURNAL

OF THE

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

VOLUME VI.

BOSTON:
WALKER, WISE, AND COMPANY,
PUBLISHERS FOR THE
AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION,
21 BROMFIELD STREET.
1859.

University Press, Cambridge:
Printed by Welch, Bigelow, and Company.

CONTENTS.

No. I.

	PAGE
The Supposed Unitarian Return to the Trinity. By C. A. Bartol	1
Letters from Abroad. By Rev. William Mountford	29
Mr. Coolidge's Farewell Discourse	47
Recent Discussions of Future Punishment	59
"The Blood Theology"	68
Extracts from Letters	73
Meetings of the Executive Committee	88
Notices of Books	94
Record of Events and General Intelligence	103
Acknowledgments	107

No. II.

Seventeenth Autumnal Convention	109
The Nature, Relations, and Culture of Christian Piety. By Rev. F. Hinckley	118
Zaccheus in the Sycamore-Tree	127
Letters from Abroad. By Rev. William Mountford	133
Historical Perspective and Analysis	147
An Unforeseen Inconvenience	151
Hours with the Old Church Legends. No. I.	156
The Financial Position of the Association	163
Ministers and Societies in 1859	170
Meetings of the Executive Committee	183
Notices of Books	187
Record of Events and General Intelligence	197
Acknowledgments	202

976

No. III.

	PAGE
Unitarian Views of Christ	205
Hours with the Old Church Legends. No. II.	219
Borromeo	225
Results of Associated Action	228
French Unitarian Preaching	235
Rev. Barzillai Frost	248
Rev. Iehabod Nichols, D. D.	256
Rev. Abiel Abbot, D. D.	262
Orthodox Interpreters. — Barnes	267
Extracts from Letters	274
Meetings of the Executive Committee	289
Record of Events and General Intelligence	295
Acknowledgments	298

No. IV.

Thirty-Fourth Anniversary of the American Unitarian Association	301
Dr. Holmes at the Festival	355
Creeds	362
A Definite Theology. By Henry W. Bellows, D. D.	369
Lessons for Mankind from the Life and Death of Humboldt	378
Acknowledgments	402